“GIVE THE WORLD YOUR BEST AND THE BEST YOU’VE GOT

PHOG ALLEN

1. THE NICKNAME: JAYHAWK

The University of Kansas is home of the Jayhawk, a mythical bird with a fascinating history. Its origin is rooted in the historic struggles of Kansas settlers. The term “Jayhawk” was probably coined about 1848. Accounts of its use appeared from Illinois to Texas. The name combines two birds - the blue jay, a noisy, quarrelsome thing known to rob other nests, and the sparrow hawk, a stealthy hunter.

2. THE ALMA MATER

In 1891, professor George Barlow Penny searched for a school song for the Glee and Mandolin Club to sing on its tour through Kansas to Denver and back. No one responded with an original song in answer to his appeals. Just before departure, he thought of the Cornell song “Far Above Cayuga’s Waters.” Hastily changing a few words, he gave it to the glee club men to sing on the trip. He did not expect the song to be used after their return, but “Crimson and the Blue” still goes on. The music is not Cornell’s but an old English folk tune, “Annie Lisle.”

3. CAMPANILE HILL

Campanile Hill forms the picturesque backdrop for Memorial Stadium. On a sunny fall Saturday, the “Hill” is transformed into a congregating place for watching Jayhawk football, sunning and barbecuing. Potter Lake, just to the southwest of Memorial Stadium and at the bottom of Campanile Hill, adds to the beauty of the Kansas campus.

4. THE K RING

The K Ring symbolizes a uniquely shared experience between generations of varsity letter winners at the University of Kansas. As a Jayhawk you are expected to uphold tradition and retain the characteristics of a champion while continuing to create your own legacy.

5. WAVING THE WHEAT

Since the early days of KU sports, it has been a ritual of Jayhawk fans to “wave the wheat” following every Kansas scoring drive in football. The tradition also extends to Allen Fieldhouse where fans “wave the wheat” when an opponent fouls out and at the conclusion of every Jayhawk victory. The ritual consists of fans waving their arms in the air, an activity which, when done by a large crowd, resembles a breezy Kansas wheat field.

6. THE ROCK CHALK CHANT

The Rock Chalk Chant has been the battle cry of KU fans for more than 80 years. This strange, traditional chant, which is among the most famous of all college cheers, was started by E.H.S. Bailey, a professor of chemistry. On May 21, 1886, Bailey submitted the cheer to his club.

THE UNIVERSITY OF KANSAS

The University of Kansas is a major public research and teaching institution with lofty goals and a global outlook. The historic buildings and tree-covered campus, along with top-ranked academic programs and growing research endeavors, provide an environment that inspires and challenges students and faculty. Students find a home that is wireless yet historic, on the edge of both prairie and a metropolis with a myriad of opportunities and activities.

CHARLIE WEIS
HEAD COACH

Second Season (1-11)
Notre Dame, 1978

Charlie Weis arrived at the University of Kansas on December 9, 2011, armed with an impressive legacy of success at the highest level of collegiate and professional football. He has his sights set on engineering the effort to turn the KU program into a consistent winner.

The 34-year coaching veteran coached 16 years in the NFL and assisted two of the greatest coaches in NFL history - Bill Parcells and Bill Belichick. Weis owns four Super Bowl rings and has played an integral role for teams that have appeared in six AFC Championship Games. As a head coach, the 2005 National College Coach of the Year led Notre Dame to back-to-back BCS Bowl Games in 2005 (Fiesta) and 2006 (Sugar).

Weis spent the 2011 season as the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at the University of Florida. In 2010 he was the Kansas City Chiefs' offensive coordinator, helping guide the team to the AFC West title, its first 10-win season since 2005 and its first playoff berth in four years.

Weis previously served as offensive coordinator for the NFL's New England Patriots (2000-04) and N.Y. Jets (1998-99). He was instrumental in the development of Patriots quarterback Tom Brady, who entered the league as a sixth-round pick in 2000 and has since become a two-time Super Bowl MVP and five-time Pro Bowl selection.

Weis demonstrated his ability to tutor quarterbacks with the Fighting Irish as well. Brady Quinn (3,919 yards in 2005) and Jimmy Clausen (3,722 yards in 2009) put up the two most prolific passing seasons in Notre Dame history. Wide receiver Golden Tate also established eye-popping numbers under Weis, setting a Notre Dame record with 2,707 career receiving yards and taking home the 2009 Biletnikoff Award as the top receiver in the country. Tate also set single-season school records in 2009 with 93 receptions and 1,496 yards and a school record-tying 15 touchdown grabs.

During Weis' five-year stay with the Patriots – from 2000-04 – the club won three Super Bowls in a four-year span, only the second team in NFL history to accomplish that feat. New England was 53-27 (.663) during Weis' tenure and had a 9-0 playoff record.

Over Tom Brady's first four seasons as a starter in the NFL (2001-04), he ranked fourth in the NFL with 97 passing touchdowns and earned Super Bowl MVP honors in two of New England's three championship victories, while wide receiver Deion Branch earned the other. The Patriots produced two-straight 14-2 seasons – in 2003 and 2004 – each capped by Super Bowl victories. New England rushed for 2,134 yards in 2004, the team's highest total since 1985.

In Weis' first stint with the Patriots, he helped the club earn its second AFC Championship in team history, reaching the Super Bowl following the 1996 season. Over the four years of his first tour with New England, Weis coached tight ends (1993-94), running backs (1995) and wide receivers (1996), helping players like Ben Coates, Curtis Martin and Terry Glenn emerge as playmakers.

The Trenton, N.J., native spent three seasons (1997-99) on staff with the New York Jets, working under head coach Bill Parcells. Weis came on staff as the wide receivers coach and was promoted to offensive coordinator in 1998. That season, the Jets advanced to the AFC Championship Game for the first time since 1982.

Weis first broke into the NFL as an assistant on Parcells' New York Giants staff, first as a defensive/special teams assistant in 1990, then moving to running backs coach in 1991 and 1992. In his first season with the team, the Giants won the Super Bowl. He then helped Rodney Hampton to a pair of 1,000-yard rushing seasons.

Weis spent time working in the Giants' pro personnel department in 1989 before joining the team on a full-time basis. While doing that, he served as head coach at Franklin Township (N.J.) High School and led the team to the state championship.

From 1985-88, Weis worked as an assistant at South Carolina. He began his coaching career at Boonton (N.J.) High School in 1979 before serving five seasons at Morristown (N.J.) High School (1980-84).

In 2003, Weis and his wife Maura created the Hannah and Friends Foundation, a non-profit organization dedicated to improving the quality of life for children and adults with special needs. The foundation funds Hannah's Helping Hands, which provides quality-of-life grants to families across the country who care for children and adults with special needs. The Weis family opened the Hannah and Friends Neighborhood, a 40-acre facility north of South Bend, Ind.,

JEFF BLASKO

Second Season
Robert Morris, 2005

Jeff Blasko is in his second season on Kansas head coach Charlie Weis' staff, serving as the tight ends coach.

Blasko came to Kansas after serving as Weis' right-hand man at Florida during the 2011 season. He was the Gators' quality control coach for offense, assisting Weis daily with all practice and game preparation, as well as player development. Following Weis' departure to become the head coach at Kansas, UF head coach Will Muschamp promoted Blasko to quarterbacks coach for Florida's Gator Bowl win over Ohio State.

Prior to his season at UF, Blasko spent three seasons at Akron as a graduate assistant working in both recruiting and with the offense. He was the Zips' graduate assistant during the 2008 and 2009 seasons under J.D. Brookhart. During the 2010 season, Blasko worked under Former Kansas player and assistant coach Clint Bowen returned to his alma mater in 2012, joining Charlie Weis' staff as the special teams coordinator and defensive backs coach. In January 2013, Bowen moved over to coaching the KU linebackers.

Bowen completed a one-year stint as defensive coordinator and safeties coach for North Texas in 2011, having joined the Mean Green after spending the 2010 season at Western Kentucky, where he held the same position.

The Lawrence native and 1995 KU grad has returned to his roots, as he has accumulated 12 years of coaching experience with the Jayhawks prior to joining the staff under Weis. He began his Kansas coaching career by working as a defensive graduate assistant coach for the Jayhawks in 1998 and 1999. He then served as assistant director of football operations during the 2000 season.

Bowen took over the role of special teams coordinator in 2001, a position he held at KU through the 2005 season. In addition to manning the special teams, Bowen also coached tight ends (2001), running backs (2002) and safeties (2003-05) during that time span.

In 2006 Bowen was promoted to co-defensive coordinator and continued coaching the Jayhawk safeties from 2003-09. Following the 2007 season he was elevated to defensive coordinator, helping guide the Jayhawks to a victory at the Insight Bowl in 2008.

During his previous stint on the KU coaching staff, the Jayhawks posted a 3-1 bowl record, including a 24-21 win over Virginia Tech in the 2008 Orange Bowl. Kansas finished the 2007 season with a 12-1 record and No. 7 national ranking in both the Associated Press and ESPN/USA Today coaches polls.

Bowen has had at least one of his players earn postseason All-Big 12 Conference recognition each year. The 2007 Kansas defense ranked fourth in the nation in scoring defense and ranked in the top-10 nationally in both passing defense and rushing defense.

Bowen was a hard-hitting defensive back for the Jayhawks in 1992-93, following one season at Butler County Community College. He led the KU defense in tackles in 1993 with 114 total stops. That figure ranks as the third-most tackles by a Jayhawk defensive back in school history.

Bowen was instrumental in helping the Jayhawks to an 8-4 final record, a No. 22 national ranking and a win over Brigham Young in the 1992 Aloha Bowl. He was the recipient of the school's Willie Pless Tackler of the Year Award following his senior season in 1993.

He is the product of a football family. His father (Charley Bowen) was a high school All-American at Lawrence High School and his older brother (Charley, Jr.) was a four-year letterwinner as a defensive back for the Jayhawks (1989-92).

Bowen and his wife, Kristie, have two sons, Baylor and Banks.

Dave Campo, a veteran coach who has experienced major success at every level of the game, joined KU head coach Charlie Weis' staff in 2012. Campo, who serves as the assistant head coach for the defense, coaches the Jayhawk defensive backs.

Campo, who spent the first 18 years of his coaching career in the collegiate ranks, was the secondary coach on Jimmy Johnson's University of Miami staff for two seasons (1987-88). During his two seasons in Miami, the Hurricanes posted a 23-1 overall record and won the 1987 National Championship. Additionally, safety Bennie Blades was the 1987 Jim Thorpe Award winner before being selected with the third pick in the NFL draft by the Detroit Lions.

A standout defensive backs coach, Campo then began his NFL coaching career, as he was hired by Dallas as an original member of Johnson's first Cowboys staff in 1989. He has 23 years of coaching experience in the NFL with 18 of those coming with the Cowboys. He has also held assistant coaching positions with the Cleveland Browns and Jacksonville Jaguars.

Campo played a key role in the development of Dallas teams that made eight playoff trips, won six division titles and claimed three Super Bowl titles. He began his career in Dallas coaching the secondary (1989-94) and then was promoted to defensive coordinator (1995-99) before working his way up to the head coaching position for the Cowboys, a post he held for three seasons from 2000 to 2002.

During his tenure in Dallas, he helped the team win consecutive Super Bowl championships in 1992 and 1993 and again in 1995.

In four of the five years that Campo directed the Dallas defense as coordinator, the Cowboys finished the year among the NFL's top-10 units, including a pair of top-three finishes. As the coordinator of the Cowboys defense, Campo helped guide the careers of some of the 1990s most dynamic defensive players - including Pro Bowlers Charles Haley, Darren Woodson, Deion Sanders, Tony Tolbert, Leon Lett, Russell Maryland and Dexter Coakley.

Prior to becoming defensive coordinator in 1995, Campo directed a secondary that had grown into one of the team's most productive units. His 1994 squad led the NFL in pass defense and he coached strong safety Darren Woodson to All-Pro honors in 1995.

Campo returned to the Cowboys where he spent the past four seasons (2008-11) working with the secondary. During that time he coached two players, Terence Newman and Mike Jenkins, to Pro Bowl appearances.

Prior to moving back to Dallas, Campo spent three seasons as the secondary coach and assistant head coach for Jack Del Rio's defense in Jacksonville. In each of his three years in Jacksonville, Campo's secondary either set - or exceeded - club records for interceptions.

In his final season with the Jags, Campo helped guide the club to an 11-5 record and a wildcard berth in the playoffs. Jacksonville defeated Pittsburgh in an opening-round road win before bowing out to the eventual undefeated AFC Champion Patriots in Foxborough. Under Campo, Rashean Mathis became the first Jaguars cornerback to be voted to the Pro Bowl, as he tied for third in the NFL with a team-record eight interceptions in 2006.

Prior to joining the Jaguars, Campo served as the defensive coordinator for the Cleveland Browns for two seasons (2003-04). Under his guidance the 2003 Browns' defense finished with the club's best overall performance in 10 seasons.

Campo began his coaching career at his alma mater, Central Connecticut State, where he spent the 1971-72 seasons. He then moved to the University of Albany (1973), Bridgeport (1974), the University of Pittsburgh (1975), Washington State (1976), Boise State (1977-79), Oregon State (1980), Weber State (1981-82), Iowa State (1983) and Syracuse (1984-86). In addition to starring at defensive back in college, Campo twice earned All-East honors at shortstop at Central Connecticut State.

Campo and his wife, Kay, have six children: Angie, Eric, Beckie, Tommy, Shelbie and Michael.

Rob Ianello is in his second season on the Kansas football staff. Ianello, who coaches the KU wide receivers and also serves as the recruiting coordinator, joined the Kansas program after serving the 2010-11 seasons as the head coach at Akron.

Ianello was instrumental in helping bring the 25th-rated signing class to Kansas in 2013, according to The Sporting News. The Jayhawk class had two four-star prospects, including the top-rated JUCO prospect in the nation in defensive lineman, Marquel Combs.

Prior to his stint at Akron, Ianello was a member of the coaching staff at Notre Dame from 2005-09, coaching all five seasons under Charlie Weis. He coached the Irish in the 2008 Hawai'i Bowl, 2007 Sugar Bowl and 2006 Fiesta Bowl.

From 2005-08 at Notre Dame, he served as wide receivers coach and coordinated the recruiting efforts of the Irish. In January 2009, he was promoted to assistant head coach for offense. In that role, he led offensive staff meetings when Weis was not present, and later served as the team's interim head coach.

Notre Dame's 2009 offense ranked sixth nationally in passing offense (323.50 ypg) and ninth in total offense (451.75 ypg). Ianello mentored Irish wide receiver Golden Tate, who was the 2009 Biletnikoff Award winner and a consensus All-American. Additionally, he coached Jeff Samardzija, who was a Biletnikoff Award finalist in 2005 and 2006 and earned All-America honors in 2006.

As the recruiting coordinator for the Irish, he directed three-consecutive top-10 recruiting classes from 2006-08, something only three other schools (USC, Florida and Georgia) could claim. Additionally, Ianello is the only coach named one of the 25-best recruiters nationally from 2005-09 by Rivals.com. In the book "The Second Season" by recruiting analyst Tom Lemming, Ianello is named one of the top-10 recruiters of the last 30 years.

Ianello had two coaching stints at Wisconsin (1990-93, 2003-04), and was part of a staff that helped lead the Badgers to the 1994 Rose Bowl, the 2003 Music City Bowl and the 2005 Outback Bowl. While at Wisconsin, he mentored tight end Owen Daniels, who has since gone on to becoming one of the elite players at his position in the NFL.

From 1994-2002, Ianello was on staff at Arizona, serving as recruiting coordinator from 1994-96, and wide receivers coach and recruiting coordinator from 1997-2002. The Wildcats played in two bowl games, the 1997 Insight.com Bowl and the 1998 Holiday Bowl. The 1998 Arizona team finished 12-1, which stands as the best record in school history.

While at Arizona, Ianello coached Dennis Northcutt and Bobby Wade, two of the most prolific wide receivers to play at the school.

Ianello served on the board of trustees of the American Football Coaches Association from 2003-09. The board formulates policy and provides direction for the AFCA. He also served as the chair of the AFCA's assistant coaches' committee and the general chairman of the AFCA's all-division assistant coaches' committee. Additionally, he served on the AFCA ethics committee in 2010 and 2011.

Born Nov. 4, 1965, Ianello is a native of Port Chester, N.Y., and is a 1987 graduate of The Catholic University of America in Washington, D.C., owning a bachelor's degree in English.

Ianello and his wife, the former Denise Dove, have one son, Zachary, and two daughters, Ashley and Courtney. Denise played collegiate basketball at Northern Illinois and is a former assistant women's basketball coach at Arizona and Wisconsin. She has also worked as a scout in the WNBA and will be inducted into the Northern Illinois Hall of Fame in 2013.

GAME 1: KANSAS OUTLASTS SOUTH DAKOTA STATE

SOUTH DAKOTA STATE (0-1)	17
KANSAS (1-0)	31

Kansas running backs Taylor Cox and Tony Pierson each rushed for over 100 yards while the KU defense forced five turnovers, as Kansas defeated the South Dakota State Jackrabbits, 31-17, in its season opener Saturday night inside Memorial Stadium. It was a tale of two halves, as Kansas outscored the Jackrabbits, 21-10, in the second half starting Charlie Weis' KU head coaching career off on the right foot. The South Dakota State defense had no answers for the KU rushing attack, which gained a total of 263 yards on the ground. Pierson and Cox each notched career highs on the night, collecting 128 and 125 yards, respectively. The duo's performance marked the first time Kansas featured a pair of 100-plus yard rushers in the same game since Brandon McAnderson and Jake Sharp both hit the century mark against Central Michigan in 2007. KU's defense used several big plays to tame the pesky Jackrabbit offense. The Jayhawks notched four interceptions, also a first since the 2007 season. KU held SDSU to just three third-down conversions on 14 attempts. KU used a strong start to the second half to outlast the visitors from Brookings, S.D. Pierson got the Jayhawk offense going after the intermission when he broke free on an off-tackle run. The East St. Louis, Ill., native took it 47 yards for the score less than five minutes into the third quarter. The run matched his career high and gave the Jayhawks their first two-possession lead of the contest. The KU defense then applied the pressure when it forced the first turnover of season on the ensuing Jackrabbit drive. Senior safety Bradley McDougald stepped in front of SDSU quarterback Austin Sumner's first pass of the game to snag his fifth-career interception. The McDougald pick gave the Jayhawks prime field position, which they used to their advantage. Crist found senior tight end Mike Ragone on a 2-yard touchdown pass at the end of a seven-play drive to up the KU lead, 24-7. The score marked the first touchdown reception in Ragone's collegiate career and the first touchdown pass for Crist in a Jayhawk uniform. Crist went 17-of-36 for 167 yards and a touchdown pass in his Jayhawk debut.

GAME 2: LAST SECOND FIELD GOAL SINKS KU

RICE (1-1)	25
KANSAS (1-1)	24

Rice used nine fourth-quarter points, including a final second 45-yard field goal from Chris Boswell, in a 25-24 come-from-behind victory over Kansas at Memorial Stadium Saturday afternoon. The Jayhawks were limited to only six fourth-quarter plays, while Rice (1-1) kept the Kansas defense on the field for 20 plays in the final period. Boswell gave Rice the early 3-0 lead with a 47-yard field goal at the 11:42 mark in the first quarter, the first of four total field goals for the junior in the game. The two teams combined for five turnovers in the first quarter, but KU got the upper hand in converting the miscues into points. The Jayhawks scored 10 points in a span of 18 seconds when Ron Doherty converted a 29-yard field goal before Dayne Crist completed a 23-yard touchdown pass to Jimmay Mundine following a Rice fumble on a kickoff return. The back-to-back scores gave Kansas a 10-3 lead. Rice knotted the score, 10-10, with 7:22 left in the second quarter after compiling a 16-play, 94-yard touchdown drive. Turner Peterson capped the nearly five-and-a-half minute drive with a 1-yard scoring plunge. The Jayhawks countered with their own 10-play, 75-yard touchdown drive when Schyler Miles punched into the end zone from one yard out for a 17-10 lead. Boswell ended the first half scoring with the way it started by splitting the uprights on a 29-yard field goal attempt with 21 seconds left in the second quarter for the 17-13 halftime score. Kansas opened the second half with another sustained offensive drive. The Jayhawks used nine plays to go 75 yards, including an 8-yard touchdown run by Taylor Cox for a 24-13 advantage. Doherty tried to add to the KU lead late in the third quarter, but his 53-yard field goal attempt fell short and to the left. Instead, Boswell booted a 29-yard field goal with 44 seconds left in the third to close the deficit, 24-16. KU was unable to increase its lead in the Jayhawks' first drive of the fourth quarter after Doherty's 40-yard field goal attempt bounced off the left upright to stall the drive with 10:21 left in the game. Rice took advantage, as Charles Ross scored a touchdown on a 2-yard run to end a 7-play, 93-yard drive. The Owls tried to force a tie, but the two-point conversion attempt failed. The Owls then took the game behind Boswell's late game heroics.

GAME 3: KU CAN'T SOLVE TCU DEFENSE

TCU (2-0)	20
KANSAS (1-2)	6

In their first Big 12 conference contest, the No. 15 TCU Horned Frogs used their stout defense and 487 yards of total offense to hand the Kansas Jayhawks a 20-6 defeat Saturday afternoon inside Memorial Stadium. TCU outscored the Jayhawks, 10-0, in the second half to claim its first conference victory as member of the Big 12. The TCU defense kept Kansas at bay for much of the afternoon, holding KU to just 74 yards on the ground and a combined 3-of-16 clip on third and fourth down attempts. Kansas kept the Horned Frogs close through the opening period, entering the second half trailing by a score of 10-6. Kansas collected three plays of 25 or more yards in the final 30 minutes but couldn't get the ball into the end zone, finding themselves scoreless in the final two quarters. TCU junior quarterback Casey Pachall was able to connect with sophomore wide receiver Brandon Carter twice on the day, but none more important than the 25-yard touchdown pass with five minutes remaining in the third quarter to give the Horned Frogs their first double-digit lead of the contest, 17-6. Pachall completed all but six of his 30 pass attempts on the day and put up 335 yards against the Kansas defense. The KU passing attack countered with a big day as senior quarterback Dayne Crist notched his second 300-yard passing contest this season. The Canoga Park, Calif., native completed 19-of-39 passes with his longest a 42-yard completion to sophomore Andrew Turzilli, who collected his first 100-yard receiving game of his career. Sophomore running back Tony Pierson also had a big day through the air, hauling in a career-high 99 yards on six catches. Pierson wasn't quite as potent on the ground however, rushing to only 35 yards after back-to-back 100-yard rushing performances in the Jayhawks' first two contests. As a team the Jayhawks notched only 77 rushing yards. After another TCU field goal and the score at 20-6 with just over 10 minutes remaining, Kansas was given a breath of life when Toben Oporum knocked the ball loose as Pachall appeared to be running in for a game-clinching touchdown. The fumble scooted through the back of the end zone, giving the Jayhawks another opportunity to bring the game within one possession.

GAME 4: NORTHERN ILLINOIS SURGES PAST KANSAS

KANSAS (1-3)	23
NORTHERN ILLINOIS (3-1)	30

Northern Illinois quarterback Jordan Lynch accounted for 369 total yards and keyed a furious fourth quarter rally as NIU topped Kansas, 30-23, at Huskie Stadium Saturday afternoon. The Huskies' dynamic signal caller threw for 235 yards and rushed for a career-best 134 yards - his third 100-yard game on the ground this season - but more importantly helped NIU (3-1) score 17 unanswered points to surge past Kansas (1-3) in the fourth quarter. After a tightly contested first three quarters, Kansas created some wiggle room on as Tyler Patmon intercepted Lynch and ran it in from 54 yards out early in the fourth quarter. The return marked KU's 13th forced turnover of the season, was Patmon's first career touchdown and gave the Jayhawks a 23-13 lead. The lead was short-lived however. Lynch hit Martel Moore for a 65-yard touchdown on the Huskies first play from scrimmage and pulled the team within a field goal just 10 seconds after the miscue. Mathew Sims knocked through a game-tying, 44-yard field goal with just under eight minutes to play and Leighton Settle capped the fourth quarter rally with a go-ahead, two-yard plunge with 4:33 left. NIU's defense also tightened up in the fourth quarter, holding KU scoreless on four offensive drives and forced two three-and-outs and a turnover on downs on the last three drives. Kansas struggled to convert on third down throughout the game, going 4-for-16 (25 percent) and failed to convert on four third down conversions in the final frame. Seven different Jayhawks logged carries in the game but it was junior James Sims who found the end zone for the Jayhawks. Sims, in his first game after serving a three-game suspension to start the year, rushed for a team-high 91 yards on 18 carries and gave KU a 10-6 lead with a 26-yard run in the second quarter. The touchdown snapped a six-quarter drought by the KU offense, which previously reached the end zone in the third quarter against Rice. Sims added another touchdown late in the third quarter, prior to Patmon's interception and part of a 10-point swing to give KU a two-score lead. Kansas rushers combined for 179 yards on 45 carries. Jayhawk quarterback Dayne Crist completed 10-of-26 passes for 147 yards and was sacked four times. Kansas linebackers Ben Heeney (12) and Anthony McDonald (11) led the defense in tackles, with Patmon logging the lone takeaway.

GAME 5: TURNOVERS SINK KU AT K-STATE

KANSAS (1-4) 16

KANSAS STATE (5-0) 56

The Kansas offense was unable to sustain long drives in the second half and No. 7 Kansas State turned five Jayhawk turnovers into 21 points, as the Wildcats cruised to their fourth-straight Sunflower Showdown victory with a 56-16 Big 12 Conference win at Bill Snyder Family Stadium Saturday. The Jayhawks (1-4 overall, 0-2 in the Big 12) accumulated nearly 22 minutes of possession in the first half and trailed just 21-14 at the intermission. However, three KU third quarter turnovers and 28 K-State points put the game out of reach. The Wildcats (5-0, 2-0) scored on drives consisting of six, four, three, four, one, three, two and six plays during the game. Lined up as a slot receiver for majority of the first KU drive, Tony Pierson hauled in four catches for 46 yards on the opening possession, including a 19-yard touchdown reception, the first of his career, to give Kansas a 7-0 lead at the 7:24 mark of the first quarter. Dayne Crist methodically moved the Jayhawk offense 83 yards in 12 plays and converted a pair of third downs on an efficient initial drive. Kansas State's John Hubert rushed three times for 42 yards, including a 20-yard touchdown run, on the ensuing drive, as the Wildcats countered to tie the game, 7-7. Hubert finished the game with 101 yards on 10 carries and four touchdowns. KU head coach Charlie Weis turned to his bag of tricks on the second Jayhawk drive. Kansas used a fake punt and a fake field goal attempt to keep the drive alive that culminated with a James Sims 1-yard touchdown plunge. The 15-play, 73-yard scoring drive fed a 14-7 KU lead with 13:23 left in the first half. Once again, K-State responded quickly needing only four plays to go 65 yards for a touchdown. Quarterback Collin Klein connected with Tyler Lockett on the 34-yard scoring play. Kansas was unable to move the ball on its third drive and was forced to punt. Once again, K-State moved the ball in chunks and went 60 yards in just three plays to take a 21-14 lead on a 1-yard touchdown run by Klein. The K-State signal caller rushed for 116 yards and two touchdowns on 10 attempts. He also passed for a pair of scores and 129 yards.

GAME 6: KU 4TH QUARTER RALLY FALLS SHORT

OKLAHOMA STATE (3-2) 20

KANSAS (1-5) 14

Kansas freshman Michael Cummings was handed the Jayhawk offense in the third quarter and with the help of a career-high 138 rushing yards by James Sims, the Jayhawks came within a touchdown of defeating Big 12 Conference opponent Oklahoma State in a 20-14 loss at Memorial Stadium Saturday. The defense of Kansas (1-5 overall, 0-3 in league play) kept the game close to set up the potential late-game heroics. KU held Oklahoma State (3-2, 1-1) to its lowest point total since the 2010 Cotton Bowl, when the Cowboys were defeated 21-7 by Ole Miss. Powered by a career-high 12 tackles from Jake Love and a career-best tying effort from Bradley McDougald with 12 stops, the Kansas defense held OSU to 371 yards of total offense, including 116 yards on the ground. Oklahoma State entered the game leading the nation with 55.8 points and 659 yards per game. OSU opened the fourth quarter with a 42-yard field goal from Quinn Sharp to take a 20-0 lead. Cummings entered the game at quarterback in place of starter Dayne Crist and threw his first career touchdown with a 21-yard pass to Jimmay Mundine to put KU on the board, 20-7. Cummings completed five of his 10 pass attempts in the game for 75 yards. On the ensuing Kansas drive, Sims ran in a 30-yard touchdown and was responsible for 58 of the 73 yards on the drive to make it a 20-14 game with 8:52 on the clock. Sims had 27 carries in the game. The Jayhawks were forced to punt following their next drive and a roughing the kicker penalty against Kansas with less than two minutes remaining eliminated any chance of the KU offense regaining possession. Oklahoma State ran out the clock to seal the victory. The game opened with a scoreless first quarter that included four failed fourth-down conversion tries between the two teams, including a fake field goal attempt by Kansas, a one hour and 19 minute weather delay and a combined 184 yards of total offense. Oklahoma State's second failed fourth-down attempt occurred inside KU's 20-yard line and marked the first time this season that the Cowboys were unable to score in the red zone ending their 25-for-25 string. KU defense held OSU to its lowest first-half score in its last 14 games. The 10 points was the fewest first-half points scored by the Cowboys in over a year; when OSU posted three points at the half at Texas A&M on Sept. 24, 2011.

GAME 7: STIFLING DEFENSE LIFTS SOONERS

KANSAS (1-6) 7
OKLAHOMA (5-1) 52

No. 7 Oklahoma used big plays in all three phases of the game and saw its defense hold Kansas to a season-low 309 yards in a 52-7 win over the Jayhawks at Gaylord Family Memorial Stadium Saturday night. The Sooners' offense scored five touchdowns - three passing and two rushing - and the special teams returned both a punt and a kick for a touchdown, but it was the OU defense that perhaps shone brightest. Oklahoma held Kansas (1-6, 0-4 Big 12) scoreless for more than three-and-a-half quarters and kept the Jayhawks out of OU territory for the majority of the game. Kansas running back James Sims rushed for 102 yards for the third consecutive game, logged more than 150 yards of total offense and punched in the Jayhawks' lone touchdown in the fourth quarter, while cornerback Greg Brown had two pass break-ups in the end zone. However, the list of game highlights favored the home team. The Sooners were held to a field goal on their opening drive of the game then added a touchdown late in the first quarter when Landry Jones hit Kenny Stills for a 44-yard strike. Meanwhile, Kansas saw each of its first three drives stall just short of midfield but had an opportunity in the red zone after a muffed punt return by Justin Brown was recovered by Josh Ford at the Oklahoma 11. The good fortune was short lived however, as Dayne Crist was hit hard by Tom Wort on a third down pass attempt and the fumble was scooped up, then returned 45 yards by Casey Walker. The Sooners converted the turnover into points when Blake Bell used a one-yard run to cap the drive. The score opened a 28-point second quarter for Oklahoma including an atonement for his earlier muff, a 90-yard punt return for a touchdown by Brown. Halftime offered a brief respite from the scoring, but Roy Finch set off the fireworks with a 100-yard kickoff return for a touchdown on the opening boot of the second half. Finch and Brown became the first Sooner duo to combine for a punt and kick return touchdown in the same game in school history.

GAME 8: TEXAS SLIPS BY KANSAS

TEXAS (6-2) 21
KANSAS (1-7) 17

Nick Prologo's 29-yard field goal put Kansas in position to post a win over No. 23 Texas, but Longhorn quarterback Case McCoy led a 70-yard touchdown drive with 12 seconds remaining for a 21-17 come-from-behind victory over the Jayhawks at Memorial Stadium on Homecoming weekend. KU led the majority of the game until Texas tied it, 14-14, with 9:41 remaining. On the ensuing drive, the Jayhawks responded with a 14-play drive that took 7:07 off the clock. The drive ended with Prologo's first-career field goal with 2:33 remaining in the game. Texas answered with a 1-yard touchdown pass to D.J. Grant from McCoy on a 70-yard drive. On the drive, McCoy threw for 68 yards on 5-for-7 passing, including a 39-yard pass down the left sideline to Mike Davis to put the Longhorns on the KU 3-yard line. Davis had three catches for 49 yards on the drive. Texas' Joe Bergeron ran in the first score of the game with a 3-yard play to take the lead, 7-0. The 43-yard drive was set up by a 31-yard rush from Jonathon Gray, who led Texas with 111 yards rushing on 18 carries. Freshman quarterback Michael Cummings and the Jayhawks responded with 19-yard pass to Kale Pick to the Longhorns' 5-yard line, but a bad KU snap pushed the Jayhawks back to the 29-yard line which eventually stalled the drive. The Jayhawks opened the second quarter scoring back-to-back touchdowns on their first two drives to take a 14-7 lead. KU's Christian Matthews scored his second-career touchdown on a 15-yard run to cap a 98-yard drive; KU's longest of the season. James Sims helped set up the initial Jayhawk scoring drive with a 64-yard run, which also included a 15-yard penalty on the play following a Texas personal foul. The run put Sims over 100-yard rushing mark for his fourth-consecutive game. Sims ended the game with 28 carries for 176 yards. On the ensuing KU drive, the Jayhawks went 63 yards in seven plays. Sims opened the drive with 20-yard gain and Tony Pierson scored an 11-yard touchdown for his third scoring run of the season. The Longhorns tried to counter by making their way into Jayhawk territory, but quarterback David Ash threw an interception to Greg Brown and the Jayhawks finished the first half leading 14-7.

GAME 9: BEARS RUN AWAY FROM KU

KANSAS (1-8) 14
BAYLOR (4-4) 41

James Sims ran for 100 yards before halftime and the Kansas defense kept it a one-score game with an extended goalline stand before the break, but Baylor used 21 unanswered points over the last 30 minutes to roll to a 41-14 win at Floyd Casey Stadium Saturday. Sims became the first Jayhawk to rush for more than 100 yards in five consecutive games since Laverne Smith in 1974, and the Kansas (1-8, 0-6 Big 12) defense found a way to keep Baylor (4-4, 1-4 Big 12) out of the end zone on the last five drives of the opening half, but couldn't keep the Bears down after halftime. Baylor broke open a 20-14 contest with 14 points in the third quarter and added another score in the fourth en route to 666 yards of total offense. On its last true drive of the first half, the Kansas defense saw the ball snapped eight times inside the 20 and six times inside the 10 before Baylor settled for a field goal. The goalline stand kept the Jayhawks within a touchdown headed into halftime and marked the fifth consecutive drive without a touchdown allowed after Baylor rolled up 14 points in the game's first five minutes. The drive was an abbreviated version of the first half, as Baylor looked stopped early but charged ahead, only to see the drive stall thanks to the relentless KU defense. Baylor steamed to a two-score lead behind two touchdown passes from Nick Florence - a lob to Terrance Williams on the opening possession and a one-play drive that saw Lache Seastrunk get behind the KU linebackers for a 68-yard catch-and-run. The Bears weren't without hiccups however, as Greg Brown intercepted Florence in the red zone on the first drive only to see the drive extended because a KU player was lined up in the neutral zone. Kansas wrapped a pair of touchdowns - a 58-yard run by Sims and a 22-yard run by quarterback Michael Cummings - around two field goals and pulled within a touchdown by halftime thanks to the play of the defensive unit. That's where KU's momentum seemed to stop. Halftime was extended due to a weather delay right before the teams were set to take the field and resumed under rainy conditions nearly an hour after the players first entered the locker room. Baylor held KU scoreless on its first drive out of the break and countered with a four-play, 55-yard scoring drive in a little more than one minute.

GAME 10: JAYHAWKS FALL IN DOUBLE OVERTIME

KANSAS (1-9) 34
TEXAS TECH (7-3) 41

While Kansas rushed for 390 yards, its highest total ever in Big 12 play, Texas Tech's Eric Stephens needed just one positive yard and one pass to score two touchdowns in overtime and help the No. 22 Red Raiders escape with a 41-34, double-overtime win over the Jayhawks at Jones AT&T Stadium Saturday. Kansas' James Sims became the first running back in KU history to rush for more than 100 yards in six consecutive games and along with Tony Pierson helped KU match the single-season mark for 100-yard, but Stephens and the Red Raiders got just enough to keep the Jayhawks on the short end. Stephens took a snap and dove over the pile for a one-yard touchdown to answer KU's opening score of the first overtime series, then the found Darrin Moore open on a halfback pass to provide the go-ahead score in the second series. KU's attempt to answer was denied on fourth down. Pierson led KU with 202 yards on just 16 carries, breaking long runs of 49 and 69 in the game, but it was Sims that carried the bulk of the workload with 30 rushes for 127 yards and two scores. Along with KU running back Taylor Cox, Kansas players have rushed for 100 yards 10 different times this season to match KU's single-season high. Kansas proved yet again that it could hang with one of the top teams in the country in the first half a game and trailed by just four at the break, 21-17. It could've been an entirely different feel, however, as KU scored 10 unanswered points to close the half after an interception by Bradley McDougald stopped a Tech drive near midfield. Both teams exchanged touchdown jabs on their opening drives with TTU's Seth Doege connecting with Jakeem Grant and KU's Sims running up the middle to cap the respective starts. Tech began to distance itself in the early part of the second quarter, as Doege hit Tyson Williams for a 16-yard TD on the quarter's opening play, then found Darrin Moore for a 6-yard strike just two minutes later. The Red Raiders looked to be moving towards a third score on its third drive of the second frame after another three-and-out from KU, but McDougald intercepted Doege's pass inside KU territory to break the momentum.

GAME 11: IOWA STATE SPOILES SENIOR NIGHT

IOWA STATE (6-5)	51
KANSAS (1-10)	14

The Kansas football team sported black jerseys for the first time in school history and came out inspired to send its senior class out on a high note, but Iowa State used a 28-point second quarter to stifle the Jayhawks' intentions and posted a 51-23 Big 12 Conference road victory at Memorial Stadium Saturday night. After exchanging lost fumbles on the first two drives of the game, Kansas and Iowa State's offenses got in sync and traded scores throughout the remainder of the first quarter. Following Michael Cummings' fumble on KU's first drive of the game, Iowa State regained possession at the KU 27-yard line. ISU was forced to settle for a 47-yard field goal from Edwin Arceo to take the early, 3-0, lead. On the following drive, Kansas used its ground game to counter, as the Jayhawk running back stable of Taylor Cox, James Sims and Tony Pierson combined to advance the ball 40 yards to the Iowa State 35-yard line. Cummings turned to the passing game and completed a pair of passes to Cox (17 yards) and Sims (16 yards) to get KU to the 2-yard line, before Cox punched it in for his third touchdown of the season and a 7-3 KU lead. Iowa State used a 10-play, 89-yard scoring drive to regain the lead, 10-7. ISU's Jeff Woody ran up the middle 11 yards for the touchdown to cap a drive that was highlighted by the 30-yard pass from Sam Richardson to Josh Lenz. The Cyclone lead was once again short-lived, as on the first play of the second quarter, KU's Pierson faked the reverse handoff and headed up field on a 55-yard touchdown run for a 14-10 KU advantage. KU's start to the second quarter was not an accurate glimpse into the remainder of the period for the Jayhawk offense. Outside of Pierson's 55-yard run, Kansas gained 19 additional yards of offense on its next four second-quarter drives, which ended with three punts and a lost a possession on a Sims fumble - his first lost fumble since playing the Cyclones on the road a year ago. Sims finished with 81 rushing yards on 20 carries, ending his six-game, 100-yard rushing streak.

GAME 12: JAYHAWKS FALL IN SEASON FINALE

KANSAS (1-11)	10
WEST VIRGINIA (7-5)	59

West Virginia quarterback Geno Smith completed 23-of-24 passes for 407 yards and three touchdowns as the Mountaineers downed Kansas, 59-10, at Milan Puskar Stadium in the regular season finale for both teams. Junior halfback James Sims gained 57 yards on 18 carries in the game to finish the year with 1,013 yards. Sims became the 11th Jayhawk player to rush for 1,000 yards in a single season and first since Brandon McAnderson in 2007. Sims scored KU's first touchdown of the afternoon, a one-yard run in the second quarter, which cut the Jayhawk deficit to 21-7 but the Mountaineers were rolling on Senior Day. Behind Smith, Tavon Austin and Stedman Bailey, West Virginia scored touchdowns on five of its six first-half possessions, including each of its last four to open a 35-7 lead at the intermission. Smith completed 14 of his first 15 pass attempts of the game and a school-record 21 passes in a row at one point. Smith's only incompletion came on a Tyler Patmon interception in the first quarter, which set the Jayhawks up at midfield trailing 7-0. Senior quarterback Dayne Crist made his first start since the Oklahoma State game on Oct. 13 and put KU in position for the equalizing touchdown when he hit Andrew Turzilli on a 41-yard bomb to the West Virginia 16 yard line. However, two penalties and a Karl Joseph interception on a tipped pass at the one ended the threat. Michael Cummings played the majority of the game for Kansas, logging 42 yards on 11 carries and he threw for 76 more. Defensively, the Jayhawks were led by senior safety Bradley McDougald, who tallied 12 tackles including 1.0 for loss in his final game as a Jayhawk. Ben Heeney tied Patmon for second among Jayhawks with eight total tackles and each recorded a sack. Heeney finished the season with a team-best 112 tackles.

HISTORY

JAYHAWK

1890 KANSAS FOOTBALL PRACTICE

KU is heading into its 123rd season of college football in 2013. Dating back to Nov. 22, 1890, the Jayhawks have played 1,199 football games in their 122-year history.

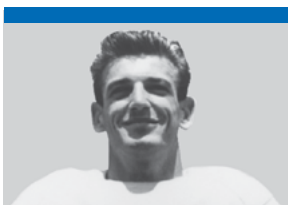

FIRST TEAM ALL-AMERICANS

1947 All-American
RAY EVANS

Ray Evans, KU's first All-America selection (along with Otto Schnellbacher), qualifies as one of the greatest athletes in Kansas history.

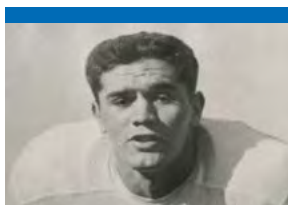

Evans is the only player in NCAA history to lead the nation in both passing (1,117 yards) and interceptions (10) in the same season (1942). His single-season interception mark, in fact, still remains a KU record. In addition to being an All-American in football, Evans was also a two-time selection as a Helms Foundation basketball All-American for head coach Phog Allen.

He is the only athlete in KU history to have both his football jersey number (42) and basketball jersey (15) retired. Evans was a key performer in helping the Jayhawks to an 8-1-2 record, a first-place tie in the Big Six Conference and a spot in the 1948 Orange Bowl his senior season. Evans once owned the NCAA record of consecutive passing attempts (60) without an interception. He played professionally for one season with Pittsburgh.

1947 All-American
OTTO SCHNELLBACHER

Known as the "Double Threat" from Sublette," Otto Schnellbacher excelled during his days as an athlete at Kansas in both football and basketball. Schnellbacher served as a team co-captain of the 1947 Jayhawk team that won a share of the conference title and earned a spot in the Orange Bowl.

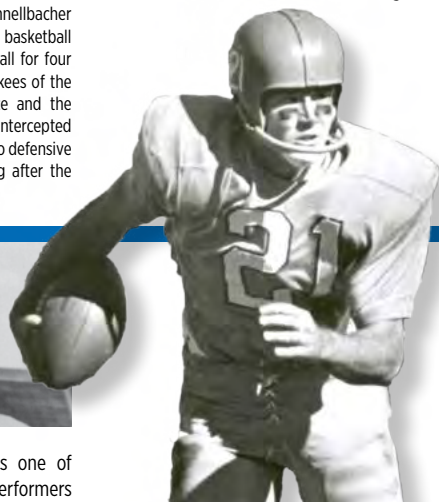

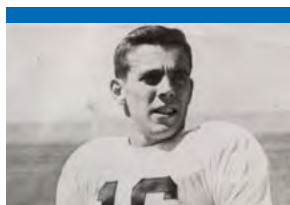

He is one of just three KU athletes to serve as a captain in both football and basketball. A two-time All-Big Six selection, Schnellbacher was credited with 58 career pass receptions for 1,069 yards and both marks stood as school records for 22 years. He averaged 18.4 yards per reception. Schnellbacher was a regular in 1942 and had his career put on hold during World War II. A four-time all-conference selection in basketball, Schnellbacher played both football and basketball professionally. He played football for four seasons with the New York Yankees of the All-America Football Conference and the New York Giants of the NFL. He intercepted 34 passes and was named All-Pro defensive back three times before retiring after the 1951 season.

1951 All-American
GEORGE MRKONIC

George Mrkonic teamed with Oliver Spencer to anchor one of the great lines in Kansas football history during the early 1950s.

Mrkonic, a two-time (1950-51) all-conference selection, played left guard on offense and defensive tackle. Mrkonic also handled punting duties during his KU career and led the Jayhawks in punting statistics in 1951.

During his three years in the lineup, Kansas compiled a combined 21-9 record, including an 8-2 mark in 1951 and 7-3 record in 1952. Mrkonic was selected to play in the East-West Shrine Game in 1952 and had a brief stint in professional football as a member of the Philadelphia Eagles. He also played one season in the Canadian Football League.

1952 All-American
GIL REICH

Although he played just one season at Kansas after transferring from the United States Military Academy, Gil Reich quickly established himself as one of the most determined performers in Jayhawk history.

He was a standout as a cornerback, excelling in run support and as a punt returner. Reich earned all-conference and All-America honors for his performance as a defensive back. In addition, Reich split time as the starting quarterback with Jerry Robertson. He accounted for 428 yards in total offense and was credited with five touchdown passes. He averaged 17.2 yards on 19 punt returns and also served as the Jayhawks' punter and kicked extra points.

Reich was also a two-sport standout, playing a significant role on the Jayhawks' 1952-53 basketball team. As a starting guard, Reich helped direct the Jayhawks to the 1953 National Championship game -- a 69-68 loss to Indiana.

1952 All-American
OLIVER SPENCER

A dominating blocker and outstanding athlete, Spencer and teammate George Mrkonic were recognized as two of college football's premier linemen during the early 1950s. Spencer excelled at right offensive tackle, helping the Jayhawks to a combined 15-5 mark during his two seasons as a regular on the offensive front.

As a sophomore, Spencer was a backup at KU behind future pro football hall of famer Mike McCormack. Following his senior season, Spencer was selected to play in both the East-West Shrine Game and the Senior Bowl.

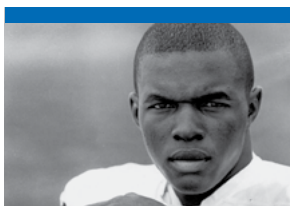

He played in the National Football League for the Detroit Lions and Green Bay Packers from 1953-61, and served as an offensive line coach for the Oakland Raiders for 19 seasons (1962-79).

1960-61 All-American
JOHN HADL

John Hadl easily represents one of the greatest all-around performers in Kansas history. The Jayhawks' first two-time All-America selection, Hadl excelled in the Jayhawk offense as a quarterback and part-time halfback.

He was also a highly effective defensive back, return specialist and one of the nation's top punters during his three-year career. His jersey No. 21 is one of just three retired in Kansas football history. A three-time all-conference selection, Hadl ended his career with 1,281 yards passing and 1,016 yards rushing. He still holds the school record for longest punt (94 yards vs. Oklahoma in 1959, third-longest in NCAA history) and has the third-longest interception return (98 yards vs. TCU in 1959).

Hadl, who led the nation in punting in 1959 with a 45.6 average, was a standout on some of KU's great teams.

1963-64 All-American
GALE SAYERS

Gale Sayers, the "Kansas Comet," established himself in his collegiate and professional career as one of the great running backs in the history of football. A two-time All-America selection for the Jayhawks, Sayers concluded his KU career with 2,675 yards rushing and 3,917 all-purpose yards. Sayers led KU in rushing, touchdowns and kickoff returns all three years he was in the lineup. He also led the team in receiving and punt returns as a junior and senior. Sayers became the first player in NCAA Division IA history to record a 99-yard run when he broke loose against Nebraska in Lincoln during the 1963 season. He also had a 96-yard kickoff return in a 15-14 upset of Oklahoma his senior season.

Sayers was a first round draft pick of the Chicago Bears (and Kansas City Chiefs) and had an abbreviated seven-year NFL career that was cut short by

1968 All-American

BOBBY DOUGLASS

Twice selected All-Big Eight Conference (1967-68), Douglass was named to both the United Press International (UPI) and Kodak All-America teams in 1968. In his senior season, Douglass directed the Pepper Rodgers-coached Jayhawks to a 9-2 record, a share of the Big Eight Conference title and a spot in the 1969 Orange Bowl. He passed for 1,316 yards and 12 touchdowns his final year as a Jayhawk. He passed for touchdowns in six consecutive games in 1968 which represented a school record. He ranks eighth all-time in career passing yardage with 2,817 yards.

His 3,832 yards in total offense qualifies as the ninth-best mark in KU history and he was responsible for 39 touchdowns during his career, a mark that ranks fifth on KU's all-time listing. Douglass was selected to play in the Senior Bowl, American Bowl and the College All-Star game in Chicago following his senior season. He earned Most Valuable Player honors in the American Bowl. Douglass played professionally in the NFL for 13 years with Chicago, San Diego, New Orleans and Green Bay.

1968 All-American

JOHN ZOOK

A three-year letterman and two-time All-Big Eight Conference selection, John Zook anchored one of the top defensive units in Kansas football history.

Zook earned All-America honors in 1968 as the defensive standout on a Kansas team that finished with a 9-2 record, shared the conference championship and faced Penn State in the Orange Bowl. The Jayhawks were ranked sixth nationally in the final Associated Press poll -- Zook's senior season.

He finished his career with 202 total tackles, which ranks as the fourth-best mark among defensive linemen in school history. "He never played but full speed from snap one to snap 100. He was the most full-speed player on every snap that you could imagine," said Pepper Rodgers.

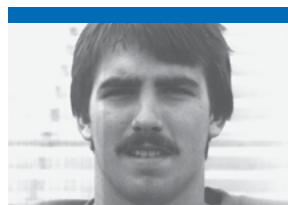

1973 All-American

DAVID JAYNES

David Jaynes brought a lethal arm to the Kansas offense in the early 1970s and broke virtually every season and career passing mark in the Jayhawk record book. A highly recruited high school quarterback at nearby Bonner Springs, Jaynes concluded his career ranked No. 1 all-time in passing yardage (a mark later broken by Frank Seurer) with 5,132 yards. His 35 career passing touchdowns stood as a school record for 34 years.

Jaynes, who earned All-America honors in 1973, had his greatest game as a senior in 1973 with a school-record performance against Tennessee in Knoxville. Jaynes connected on 35 of 58 attempts for 394 yards. "I've never seen him have a better day in his life," said then-head coach Don Fambrough. Jaynes directed the Jayhawks to a 7-4-1 record his senior year, including a trip to the Liberty Bowl. Jaynes, who led KU in passing for three consecutive seasons, finished fourth in the voting for the Heisman Trophy in 1973.

1983 All-American

BRUCE KALLMEYER

Bruce Kallmeyer is regarded as one of the most potent offensive weapons in Kansas history thanks to his talents as a placekicker. Kallmeyer concluded his four-year Jayhawk career with single-season marks of field goals made (24), attempted (29) and ranks first all-time in career field goal percentage (77.9). Kallmeyer also established new standards in the Kansas record book for most field goals in a game (five) which he recorded twice in his career, against Nebraska in 1981 and Wichita State in 1983. Kallmeyer also had four field goals in the Jayhawks' upset win over Southern California in 1983.

Kallmeyer, who had a career-long 57-yard field goal against Iowa State as a senior, ranks third all-time in scoring with 233 points. His 98 points in 1983 qualifies as the second-best single-season mark in KU history and his 21 points against Wichita State in the same season represents the most single-game points by a KU kicker in history.

a knee injury. He led the league in rushing in 1966 and 1969. He retired in 1972 with a career total of 4,956 rushing yards. He was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1977 at age 34, the youngest person ever selected. He served as assistant athletics director at his alma mater from 1972-76.

2007 All-American

ANTHONY COLLINS

Big, strong, and fast, Anthony Collins became one of the nation's premier offensive linemen in his junior season, his final year at Kansas before declaring early for the NFL Draft. The 6-6, 310-pounder was named All-America First Team by the Associated Press, Walter Camp Foundation and Football Writer's Association of America among others in 2007.

The Beaumont, Texas native was also one of three finalists for the Outland Trophy given to the nation's top interior linemen. Collins helped pave the way for consecutive 1,000-yard rushers in Jon Cornish and Brandon McAnderson during his last two years, while anchoring an offensive unit that was among the nation's most productive his junior year. Collins played both right and left tackle during his career. He earned All-Big 12 Honorable Mention honors as a sophomore at right tackle and then was named an All-Big 12 First Team pick as a junior after switching to the left side. He was drafted in the fourth round by the Cincinnati Bengals.

2007 All-American

AQIB TALIB

A versatile performer, Aqib Talib capped off his Kansas career by being named a consensus All-America selection after his junior season. In that junior campaign he helped lead the Jayhawks to a 12-1 record, a regular season national ranking of second and a FedEx Orange Bowl victory. A tremendous cornerback, Talib led the country in passes defended as a sophomore with 28 and then recorded 18 more the following season.

He finished his career with 13 interceptions, second all-time at KU, and added 45 passes broken up despite leaving for the NFL after his junior season. He also recorded 66 tackles as a junior as he was the Jack Tatum Award winner, a Bronko Nagurski finalist, a Jim Thorpe semifinalist and a Walter Camp watch list selection in addition to his All-America honors in 2007. Not only did Talib excel on the defensive side of the football, he saw action as a wide receiver as well. In 2007 he caught eight passes for 182 yards and four touchdowns, giving him five touchdowns on nine career receptions. In his final game at KU he was named the MVP of the FedEx Orange Bowl. He was drafted 20th overall by Tampa Bay in the 2008 NFL Draft after his junior campaign.

GAME SUMMARY

Trailing 20-14 to Georgia Tech with the final minutes ticking away, Kansas appeared ready to upset the favored Engineers in the 14th annual Orange Bowl, only to have a lost fumble at the two-foot line dash all hopes. Georgia Tech scored first on a 24-yard pass play to take a 7-0 lead in the second quarter. Kansas answered, however, with a 65-yard drive, finished by Ray Evans' 12-yard scoring burst and the extra point by Don Fambrough.

The third quarter proved pivotal, however, as Georgia Tech scored twice to take a 20-7 lead into the final stanza. Finding it difficult to move on the ground, Tech resorted to the air. As a result, Georgia Tech's quarterback Jim Still set an Orange Bowl record for most touchdown passes and best passing percentage, a .769 mark based on 10 completions in 13 attempts.

The Jayhawks, though, were not finished. A long pass from quarterback Bill Hogan to end Bryan Sperry moved the ball to the Georgia Tech 12. Hogan then lobbed a 12-yard scoring pass to Ray Evans. Soon afterwards Dick Monroe of Kansas recovered a Georgia Tech fumble at the Tech 42. Three plays later, Hogan completed a pass to end Otto Schnellbacher, putting the ball at the 26. Evans then sliced off three yards before pitching to Schnellbacher, who was forced out at the 10. Evans bolted nine yards to the one, and it appeared Kansas was ready to upset the Engineers.

But then disaster struck. Quarterback Lynne McNutt, attempting to sneak it in for the game-tying touchdown, lost the ball and the officials ruled that Tech's Rollo Phillips recovered it. Controversy raged as to whether McNutt actually fumbled or Phillips took it away from him amidst the pileup at the goal line.

GAME SUMMARY

Sparked by a 41-yard run by quarterback John Hadl out of deep punt formation late in the first half, Kansas swept by Rice, 33-7, to claim the third annual Bluebonnet Bowl. Trailing 7-6 at the time and facing a fourth-and-six situation from the KU 40, Hadl faked the punt and raced 41 yards before being dropped at the Rice 19. Two plays later fullback Ken Coleman crashed over from the one to give the Jayhawks a 12-7 halftime lead.

The Jayhawks controlled the ball in the second half, scoring on drives of 50, 36 and 68 yards, while finishing the day with 76 offensive plays compared to only 47 for Rice. Hadl completed seven of 10 attempts for 64 yards. Coleman, voted the game's Most Outstanding Offensive Performer, finished with 107 yards rushing and two touchdowns.

The Jayhawks scored first with 5:05 remaining in the initial quarter, when Coleman went over from a yard out. It climaxed a 59-yard, nine-play drive. The extra point attempt by Bill Barnes was blocked. Rice answered that score with just 45 seconds left in the first quarter, when quarterback Randy Kerbow completed a five-yard scoring pass to flanker Johnny Burrell. The extra point was good to put the Owls on top for the one and only time. That set the stage for Hadl's heroics and the Kansas domination.

GAME SUMMARY

In the never-to-be-forgotten "Twelfth Man Game," Penn State narrowly defeated Kansas, 15-14, with a second-chance two-point conversion in the waning seconds of the 35th annual Orange Bowl Classic. The Jayhawks thought they had won the game when they broke up Chuck Burkhart's conversion pass following Penn State's frantic touchdown with just 15 seconds remaining. Kansas was penalized, however, for having 12 men on the field, and the Nittany Lions received another chance — this time from only one-and-a-half yards out instead of three. On that attempt Bob Campbell's thrust at the left side of his line produced the winning margin.

Kansas, playing in its third bowl game, scored in the opening quarter when Mike Reeves capped a nine-play, 45-yard drive by ramming over from the two. Pat Hutchens set the drive in motion by intercepting a Burkhart pass.

The Jayhawks took a 14-7 lead early in the fourth quarter, when Donnie Shanklin returned a punt 46 yards to the seven to set up a touchdown by John Riggins. The Jayhawks nursed the lead for nearly 12 minutes, once missing a first down by inches at the Penn State five while driving for what would have been a wrap-up touchdown. The game still appeared to be under control when Kansas kicked to the Nittany Lions at the 50 with 1:16 remaining. But on the next play Burkhart hit Campbell with a 47-yard pass that KU defender Billy Hunt lost in the lights. It took three plays to score from the three, but Burkhart finally got across on a bootleg play around left end to set the stage for the hectic finish.

GAME SUMMARY

Playing in a bowl game for the fourth time in its history, Kansas was upset by North Carolina State, 31-18, in the 15th annual Liberty Bowl. The Jayhawks fell after a controversial decision by an official in the third quarter, which was followed by three unanswered N.C. State touchdowns.

The play in question came early in the third quarter with the score tied, 10-10. N.C. State punted to KU's Bruce Adams at the 19. In heavy traffic Adams called for a fair catch, but fell to the ground as the ball glanced off him. N.C. State's Ralph Stringer fell on the ball and the Wolfpack scored two plays later. Adams argued with officials that he was tripped on the fair catch, but the officials refused to change their ruling.

The Wolfpack scored twice more before the Jayhawks' offense responded with a late fourth quarter scoring drive of its own.

David Jaynes, KU's All-American quarterback playing his last game for the Jayhawks, finished the game with 24 completions in 38 attempts for 218 yards. All of those figures represented Liberty Bowl records, and for his efforts Jaynes was named the game's Outstanding Offensive Performer.

GAME SUMMARY

Playing in its fifth bowl game ever and second in three years, Kansas dropped a 33-19 decision to Pittsburgh in the 41st annual Sun Bowl. Behind three 100-plus yard rushing performances by All-American halfback Tony Dorsett (142), fullback Elliott Walker (123) and quarterback Robert Haygood (101), the Panthers built a 19-0 halftime lead and made that lead hold up in the second half to claim the triumph.

The Jayhawks did score first in the second half, giving some hope of a comeback. Halfback Laverne Smith, who finished the day with 118 yards rushing, dazzled the Panther defense with a 55-yard burst up the middle with 4:32 remaining in the third quarter. That made it 19-7, but with 12:49 remaining in the game Walker scored again for Pittsburgh, this time from two yards out, to erase all hopes of a KU comeback.

Smith later added a 17-yard touchdown run, which was followed by a 38-yard scoring pass from quarterback Scott McMichael to halfback Skip Sharp to close out the Kansas scoring. Nearly 4,000 KU faithful made the trip to El Paso to help comprise the record turnout of 30,272.

GAME SUMMARY

It will be remembered by Jayhawk fans as the 12-second game. Playing in its first postseason game in six years, Kansas players, coaches and fans watched as a nightmare unfolded before their eyes. KU's Darren Green took the opening kickoff and returned it 15 yards before colliding with a teammate. The result was a turnover and Mississippi State's ball on the KU 17. On the ensuing play, MSU quarterback John Bond rolled right on an option play, turned up field and went unscathed into the end zone for the first and last TD of the day. A mere dozen ticks of the clock had gone by and already KU was trailing, 7-0.

Following the quick score the Jayhawk defense stiffened, however, allowing just a field goal for the remainder of the game.

The offense was a different story. The Jayhawks' only real scoring threat was nullified by a strange penalty. With a little under five minutes left in the game, KU's Bucky Scribner punted from deep in KU territory; the Bulldogs' Cookie Jackson fumbled and Kansas recovered on the MSU 22. However, a flag had been thrown; the Jayhawks were called for clipping. Rather than moving the ball back 15 yards to the Bulldog 37, the officials decided the clip had occurred during the punt, and assessed the penalty from the line of scrimmage. Kansas had to punt again from its own 11.

GAME SUMMARY

Playing in its first bowl game in 11 years, Kansas surrendered a kickoff return touchdown to Brigham Young on the first play of the game. Just two plays later, KU answered right back as receiver Matt Gay caught a lateral from quarterback Chip Hilleary and then hit a wide-open Rodney Harris for a 74-yard touchdown pass.

KU defensive lineman Chris Maumalanga tackled BYU's Jamal Willis for a safety and a 9-7 lead. The Kansas defensive line had a strong day as senior Dana Stubblefield led the Jayhawks with three sacks, three hurries and one tackle for loss. For his efforts, Stubblefield was named the game's Most Valuable Player.

Willis soon gained revenge with a 29-yard touchdown romp with 10:16 left to play in the half. Following his score, BYU led, 14-9, but Jayhawk kicker Dan Eichloff hammered a 41-yard field goal that capped the first-half scoring at 14-12.

BYU carried a 20-12 lead into the final quarter. Hilleary then scored on a one-yard run and capped it with a two-point conversion that tied the game at 20. On the following drive, the Jayhawk defense stopped the Cougars on three straight plays and BYU was forced to punt. Hilleary then led the Jayhawks on a drive that lasted nearly seven minutes and resulted in Eichloff's 48-yard field goal, giving Kansas the lead.

BYU mounted a drive late in the game, but senior safety Charley Bowen secured the Jayhawks' first bowl win in 31 years by picking off Young's pass at the Kansas 29-yard line with 2:11 to play.

GAME SUMMARY

Preparing for its second bowl game in four seasons and its eighth in school history, the Jayhawks set several bowl records in running over the favored UCLA Bruins to win their second-straight postseason game.

Kansas struck first and often in taking a 17-0 lead into halftime. Senior quarterback Mark Williams capped an 11-play, 72-yard drive with a nine-yard pass to tight end Jim Moore for the touchdown. On its first drive of the second quarter junior running back June Henley outran the Bruin defenders for a touchdown. Henley carried the ball 13 times for 107 yards on the afternoon. Jeff McCord booted a 27-yard field goal late in the second quarter to give the Jayhawks a 17-0 lead at halftime.

In the third quarter KU's Ashaundai Smith returned a punt 43 yards and five plays later Williams found Andre Carter open in the left corner of the end zone for a score. Carter's first career TD gave Kansas a 37-7 lead late in the third quarter.

Williams finished the day 18-for-27 passing for 288 yards and three touchdowns. He also had 11 carries for 48 yards, including a fourth-quarter touchdown run. Following the game he was named Kansas' Most Valuable Player of the game. When the final gun sounded, the Jayhawks had set a bowl record for most points scored by a team with their 51-30 victory.

GAME SUMMARY

Kansas, playing in its first bowl game since 1995, fell to the North Carolina State Wolfpack, 56-26, in the Mazda Tangerine Bowl in Orlando, Fla.

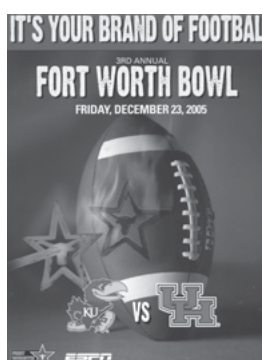

N.C. State opened the scoring with a three-play, 64-yard drive which took just 1:02, capped by a 45-yard touchdown pass from Tangerine Bowl MVP Philip Rivers to Richard Washington.

The Jayhawks answered with 10:41 left in the first quarter, as senior quarterback Bill Whittemore found freshman wide receiver Charles Gordon in the end zone on a 23-yard pass play.

KU scored again with 4:01 remaining in the half, capping off a 10-play, 66-yard drive with a 28-yard field goal by Jerod Brooks to make the score 21-10. But NCSU closed out the first-half scoring with a three-yard touchdown pass from Rivers to McClendon to make the score 28-10 at the break.

The Jayhawks opened the scoring in the second half, marching down the field on a nine-play, 79-yard drive that culminated with an 11-yard touchdown pass from Whittemore to sophomore running back Clark Green. N.C. State answered right back with two straight scores to take a 42-17 lead.

A nine-yard Whittemore rush for a score made the score 42-26 with 14:18 left in the game. But that's as close as KU would get. Brandon Rideau led the Jayhawk receivers with a KU-bowl record nine catches for 109 yards.

GAME SUMMARY

Kansas closed out the 2005 season with a 42-13 victory over Houston in the Fort Worth Bowl at Amon G. Carter Stadium. The win gave the Jayhawks their first bowl victory since the 1995 Aloha Bowl and the most wins (seven) in a decade.

Junior Brian Murph put Kansas on the board early when he returned a Houston punt 85 yards for a touchdown.

Houston scored its first points of the game in the second quarter when freshman Ben Bell kicked a 32-yard field goal. Kansas made it 14-3 on the ensuing possession with a five-play, 60-yard drive that resulted in a 13-yard touchdown shovel pass from senior Jason Swanson to junior Jon Cornish.

The Cougars capped a 42-yard, seven-play drive with a touchdown when junior Kevin Kolb scored on a one-yard keeper with 57 seconds remaining in the half. KU headed into the break leading 14-10.

The KU defense struck early in the second half when senior Theo Baines intercepted a Kolb pass and ran it 16 yards to KU's 30-yard line. Two plays later, Cornish took another shovel pass from Swanson 30 yards for his second touchdown of the day making it 21-10 in favor of the Jayhawks.

On KU's next possession, Swanson connected with senior Mark Simmons on a 32-yard pass to cap an 80-yard, 3:32 scoring drive. The touchdown gave KU a 28-13 lead with 4:57 left in the third quarter.

KU pulled away scoring twice following interceptions by Charlton Keith and Baines.

Swanson threw for four touchdowns and had 19 completions on 29 attempts for 307 yards and was named KU's 2005 Fort Worth Bowl Most Valuable Player.

GAME SUMMARY

Playing in its first BCS game, No. 8 Kansas earned a 24-21 victory over No. 3 Virginia Tech in the 2008 Orange Bowl championship. Sophomore QB Todd Reesing threw a touchdown pass and ran for another, while Orange Bowl MVP Aqib Talib returned an interception 60 yards for a TD to lead KU.

The Jayhawk defense and special teams were the story of the game. The Jayhawks matched a KU bowl game record with three INTs, while five different Jayhawks collected quarterback sacks. Of the three interceptions, none was bigger than Talib's first-quarter pick that gave Kansas a 7-0 advantage.

With 12 minutes remaining in the first half, senior place kicker Scott Webb stretched KU's lead to 10-0 with a 32-yard field goal, capitalizing on a Chris Harris interception.

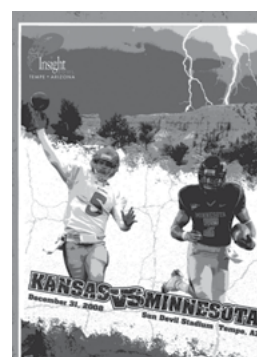

KU increased its lead to 17-0 when Reesing led the Jayhawks on a 10-play, 59-yard drive that he culminated with a 13-yard strike to Marcus Henry. Virginia Tech answered that touchdown with a one-yard plunge by Brandon Ore with 1:24 to go in the half.

The Hokies cut the lead to 17-14 on an 86-yard punt return by Justin Harper early in the second half. Tech threatened again in the third quarter, but KU held onto its lead when junior Joe Mortensen blocked a 25-yard field goal attempt with 6:41 to go in the quarter.

Following a Justin Thornton pick-off deep in Tech territory, Reesing stretched the KU lead to 24-14 with a two-yard bootleg run.

But Virginia Tech was not done. With 5:51 to go, the Hokies held Kansas on a fourth-down try from the Tech 23. They then marched the ball 77 yards on 14 plays, drawing to within three with three minutes remaining.

The Hokies tried an onside kick, but KU's Raimond Pendleton recovered the ball. From there, the Jayhawks ran out the clock.

GAME SUMMARY

Todd Reesing completed 27-of-35 passes for 313 yards and four touchdowns, while Dezmon Briscoe set Insight Bowl records for receptions (14) and TD catches (three), to lead the Jayhawks to a 42-21 victory over Minnesota in the 20th Insight Bowl. The win gave the Jayhawks their third-straight bowl.

On defense KU's trio of senior linebackers shined. Mike Rivera matched a career high with 14 tackles, while Joe Mortensen also tied his career best with 13 stops. James Holt added eight tackles, with four for loss, including three sacks.

Briscoe was named the game's offensive MVP, while Holt was tabbed the game's top defender.

Kansas struck first, scoring on a 60-yard pass play from Reesing to Briscoe on the game's opening play from scrimmage. Minnesota responded on its first possession, however, converting on a 75-yard pass on their opening play to set up a quick score.

Trailing 14-7, in the first quarter, Kansas scored the game's next 28 points to take a 35-14 lead in the third period.

The Jayhawks scored on four of their first five possessions while shutting Minnesota down after the Gophers scored the first two times they had the ball. Reesing was nearly flawless in the first half, throwing four touchdown passes and at one point completing a school-record 14 straight passes. He finished the first 30 minutes hitting 19-of-23 passes for 221 yards and the four scores.

KU scored in the third quarter on a 32 yard pass from Meier to Briscoe and then closed out the game's scoring with a two-yard rushing TD from Jake Sharp.

This listing of all-time lettermen is as complete and accurate as historical records allow. Included are names -- in some instances first name and not actual name on roster -- along with position and years lettered of the more than 2,000 letterwinners who have played at the University of Kansas. Corrections and additions are welcomed if they can be verified. Inquiries should be directed to the KU Communications Office.

CAPSULE HISTORY

1890 SHERMAN SCORES
FIRST KU TOUCHDOWN

Kansas played its first official football game, losing to Baker University in Baldwin, Kan., 22-9. Right halfback A.F. Sherman scored KU's first touchdown on a punt return. An account of the game in the Weekly University Courier described Sherman's TD: "Hudson punted the ball down the field. Sherman managed to get the ball and made a phenomenal run for the first Kansas score ever made in football."

1912 KU DEFEATS MU
IN FIRST HOMECOMING

Playing its first Homecoming game before a crowd of 9,000 fans at McCook Field, KU downed rival Missouri, 12-3. Jayhawk coach Arthur Mosse used a new offensive alignment, known as the "Minnesota Shift" to confuse the Tigers that afternoon.

1931 KU PLAYS HASKELL
IN FIRST HOME NIGHT GAME

On a Friday night, Oct. 2, Kansas hosted the Haskell Indians in the first-ever home night game in Jayhawk football history. The concept for a night game came from KU athletics director Phog Allen, who was able to transport portable lights that were borrowed from Haskell Stadium (also in Lawrence) and put them in place at Memorial Stadium. In front of 11,000 fans, Haskell surprised KU with a 6-0 victory.

1899 KANSAS HAS
FIRST PERFECT SEASON

In his only season as head coach at Kansas, Fielding H. Yost led the Jayhawks to a 10-0 record, which represents one of just two perfect seasons in the 123 years of football competition. KU outscored its opponents 280-37 and averaged 28 points per game. Yost, who later gained fame as head coach at Michigan, was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame in 1951.

1920 PHOG ALLEN BUILDS
A FOOTBALL STADIUM

Legendary KU basketball coach Phog Allen, in his only season as head football coach, rallied his team from a 20-0 halftime deficit to a 20-20 tie against Nebraska. Leading the team were senior quarterback Dutch Lonborg and halfback John Bunn, who were later inducted into the College Basketball Hall of Fame. Monday, students and faculty gathered to celebrate the comeback and more than $200,000 was pledged over a three-day period to build a concrete stadium to replace McCook Field.

1947 EVANS & SCHNELLBACHER:
FIRST TEAM ALL-AMERICANS

Led by KU's first two All-America selections - halfback Ray Evans and end Otto Schnellbacher - the Jayhawks finished the season with an 8-1-2 record, tied for first in the conference and capped the season by playing Georgia Tech in the 1948 Orange Bowl. It marked KU's first appearance in a postseason bowl game. Among the victories that season for head coach George Sauer was an 86-6 win against South Dakota State, which represents the most points a KU team has ever scored in a single game. KU finished the year ranked 12th in the final Associated Press poll.

CONFERENCE CHAMPIONSHIP

The Jayhawks finished with a 9-0 record, outscoring their opponents 131-20, and claimed the school's first conference championship by finishing with a 4-0 record in the Missouri Valley Intercollegiate Conference.

1921 JAYHAWKS OPEN PLAY IN MEMORIAL STADIUM

In the first game in Memorial Stadium, the Jayhawks defeated Kansas State, 21-7, in front of 5,160 fans. When the stadium opened, the east and west side stands were completed with a capacity of 22,000. The final game of the 1921 season saw KU down Missouri, 15-9, before 15,480 fans.

DR. JAMES NAISMITH
& THE GAME OF FOOTBALL

The man credited with inventing the game of basketball - Dr. James Naismith (right) - also had a significant impact on the development of football. Naismith took a football and cut it lengthwise and placed it over his head to protect his ears as a football player at Springfield College. Thus, the first football helmet was invented.

Naismith was hired by the University of Kansas in 1898 as director of physical education on the recommendation of legendary football coach Amos Alonzo Stagg. He retired from active teaching in 1937 after 39 years as a member of the KU faculty.

1960 JAYHAWKS UPSET
A NO. 1-RANKED TEAM

The Jayhawks faced one of the most challenging schedules in school history, facing three teams (Syracuse, Iowa and Missouri) ranked No. 1 in the nation. KU lost early in the season to Syracuse (14-7) and Iowa (21-7), but the elite backfield combination of John Hadl, Curtis McClinton, Doyle Schick and Bert Coan helped lead the Jayhawks to a 23-7 upset win versus then No. 1-ranked Missouri. The win was later forfeited when it was determined that Coan had received a free plane ride to the College Football All-Star Game in Chicago from a KU alum.

1963 SAWYER SCAMPERS FOR NCAA RECORD

Hall of Fame halfback Gale Sayers put his name in the college football record book by breaking loose on a 99-yard run against Nebraska in Lincoln, the longest run from scrimmage at that time in NCAA history. Only four other backs (including KU's Eric Vann) have accomplished a run of that length in the history of college football.

1967 A COACHING STAFF OF EXCELLENCE

After finishing with a 5-5 record in his first season as head coach in 1967, Pepper Rodgers assembled one of the greatest coaching staffs in KU history to begin the 1968 season. The staff included several assistants who would later achieve fame as head coaches, including John Cooper (Tulsa, Arizona State and Ohio State), Dick Tomey (Arizona), Terry Donahue (UCLA), the late Dave McLain (Wisconsin) and Don Fambrough (Kansas). The staff also included Doug Weaver (former athletics director at Georgia Tech and Michigan State) and Larry Travis (former athletics director at Kansas State and Western Carolina).

1968 ROGERS TAKES KU TO ORANGE BOWL

Under the guidance of coach Pepper Rodgers, KU came within five points of an undefeated season and a victory in the Orange Bowl. The Jayhawks tied for first in the Big Eight and finished 9-2 with losses to Oklahoma (27-23) during the regular season and Penn State (15-14) in the Orange Bowl. Among the standouts were quarterback Bobby Douglass and fullback John Riggins.

1973 A CARDIAC SEASON

The Jayhawks experienced a cardiac season with six games decided by two points or less -- the most games decided by that margin in NCAA history. KU finished the year with a 7-4-1 record, winning three of those close encounters, and played North Carolina State in the Liberty Bowl.

ED HARVEY & HOMER FLOYDBREAKING BARRIERS

ED HARVEY became the first African-American to play football at Kansas, earning his "K" letter as a member of the 1893 Jayhawk team. Harvey's parents were born into slavery and later escaped Quantrill's Raid in Lawrence. They became share croppers and were able to put their three sons through college.

It was 62 years later when HOMER FLOYD, a standout at Massillon (Ohio) High School, broke the modern-day color barrier to play football at KU. Floyd enrolled at Kansas at the urging of his high school coach, Chuck Mather, who served as the Jayhawk head coach from 1954-57.

Floyd, a team captain in 1958, started all 30 games of his career (1955-58) on offense and defense. He led the Jayhawks in rushing yardage all three years and earned all-conference honors as a senior. Floyd later played for the Edmonton Eskimos of the Canadian Football League and then served as executive director of the Pennsylvania Human Relations Commission.

ED HARVEY

HOMER FLOYD

1975 CROMWELL GUIDES
KU TO UPSET OVER OU

Kansas defeated No. 2 Oklahoma in Norman, 23-3, to end the Sooners' 28-game winning streak and 37-game unbeaten string. Earlier in the season, quarterback Nolan Cromwell set a new NCAA record for rushing yards by quarterbacks with 294 yards on 28 carries in a 20-0 win against Oregon State.

1997 KANSAS NABS
500TH VICTORY

Terry Allen was on the sidelines for his second conference victory as head coach at KU and the school's 500th win in school history as the Jayhawks downed Oklahoma, 20-17.

2005 KU REACHES
SECOND BOWL GAME
IN THREE YEARS

Mark Mangino became the first head coach in KU history to lead his team to two bowl games in a three-year span as the team faced Houston in the Fort Worth Bowl. KU clobbered the Cougars, 42-13. Quarterback Jason Swanson was named the game's Most Outstanding Player.

1991 TUXEDO TONY RUSHES
FOR 396 YARDS

Running back "Tuxedo" Tony Sands set an NCAA single-game record by rushing for 396 yards on 58 carries in a 53-29 win against Missouri in Lawrence. Sands was later named Offensive Player of the Year in the Big Eight Conference.

1992 FIRST BOWL WIN
IN 31 YEARS

Head coach Glen Mason guided KU to its first bowl win in 31 years as the Jayhawks defeated Brigham Young, 23-10, in the 1992 Aloha Bowl. Led by defensive linemen Dana Stubblefield and Gilbert Brown, along with quarterback Chip Hileary, KU finished the season with an 8-4 record and placed third in the Big Eight Conference.

1995 SURPRISE TEAM OF COLLEGE FOOTBALL

Picked to finish fifth in the Big Eight preseason polls, the Jayhawks were one of the surprise teams of college football with a 10-2 season and a win over UCLA in the Aloha Bowl. Along the way, KU defeated two ranked teams (Colorado and Oklahoma) on the road. The season ended with a twist of drama as head coach Glen Mason announced just prior to the bowl game that he was leaving after the UCLA encounter to become head coach at Georgia. Mason later changed his mind and stayed as head coach, informing his team on the morning of the Aloha Bowl. KU cruised to a 51-30 victory.

2007 JAYHAWKS CLAIM
BCS BOWL VICTORY

Consensus National Coach of the Year Mark Mangino guided the Jayhawks to arguably the greatest season in Kansas football history as the Jayhawks won a BCS Bowl (FedEx Orange Bowl), finished the year ranked seventh in the country for the second-highest ranking in school history, and posted a 12-1 record. Three Jayhawks-Aqib Talib, Anthony Collins and James McClinton-earned All-America honors as KU was the only team in the nation to rank in the top five in both scoring offense and scoring defense. The Jayhawks became the talk of the nation after running up 11-straight victories before suffering their first loss in a matchup with Missouri. KU entered that regular season finale ranked second in the country while the Tigers were listed third. Despite the loss, the Jayhawks were selected to play in a BCS game and finished the season with a victory against No. 5 Virginia Tech in the FedEx Orange Bowl.

2008 JAYHAWKS REACH CONSECUTIVE BOWL GAMES FOR
FIRST TIME IN HISTORY

For the first time in school history Kansas played in bowl games in consecutive years as the 2008 Jayhawks won the 2008 Insight Bowl a season after claiming the 2008 Orange Bowl. KU's 20 combined wins in 2007 and 2008 were the most in school history as well.

UNIVERSITY CHANCELLOR

DR. BERNADETTE GRAY-LITTLE
FOURTH YEAR

Since arriving at the University of Kansas in 2009, Bernadette Gray-Little has advanced KU’s mission of lifting students and society by educating leaders, building healthy communities, and making discoveries that change the world.

Through the Bold Aspirations strategic plan, KU is changing the way it prepares students for success. It’s fostering research and scholarship across all disciplines, and sharing the benefits of a flagship university with the state and world.

Gray-Little led the effort to create new admission standards for the University of Kansas. These new standards take effect in 2016 and will give students and families a more accurate picture of what it takes to be successful at a research university.

Under Chancellor Gray-Little’s leadership, the university has also revamped financial aid, creating four-year renewable scholarships and expanding the Jayhawk Generations Scholarship. And it has launched its first university-wide curriculum, the KU Core, which incorporates both classes and experiences, making KU a leader among its national peers.

Gray-Little has also been instrumental to Far Above: The Campaign for Kansas, KU Endowment’s $1.2 billion comprehensive fundraising campaign. Additionally, the university’s Changing for Excellence initiative is making administrative operations more efficient, with the savings being invested in education and research.

As chancellor, Gray-Little is the chief executive officer of the university, overseeing campuses in Lawrence, Kansas City, Overland Park, Salina and Wichita, as well as research and educational centers in Garden City, Hays, Parsons, Pittsburg, Topeka and Yoder.

Gray-Little was one of four university leaders selected to represent the Association of Public and Land-grant Universities at a White House summit on math and science education in January 2010. She is also on the board of trustees for the Online Computer Library Center, an international organization dedicated to expanding public access to information and research.

Prior to becoming KU’s 17th Chancellor, Gray-Little held leadership positions at the University of North Carolina-Chapel Hill, including executive vice chancellor and provost.

Dr. Sheahon (SHAY-un) Zenger is a coach at heart. But when KU Chancellor Bernadette Gray-Little introduced the Hays, Kan., native as KU's Athletics Director January 3, 2011, he promised not to call any plays for the coaches. That doesn't mean, though, that he won't be right there with them - and their student-athletes - every step of the way. For it's his genuine care for coaches and student-athletes that has stamped his career in intercollegiate athletics.

Zenger comes to KU after serving for five years as athletics director at Illinois State University, helping steer ISU Athletics to a place of prominence in the Missouri Valley Conference. The Redbirds won a conference-leading seven league titles during the 2009-10 season and captured their second Valley All-Sports Trophy in three years.

At the beginning, Zenger wasn't headed toward a career in administration. He was nine years old when he told his father he wanted to be a coach, and it didn't take long for that dream to materialize. After playing football at Fort Hays State and Mid-American Nazarene College, he finished his undergraduate degree at Kansas State. Even before he received his bachelor's degree in English and secondary education in 1988, Zenger was assisting the football coaches at Manhattan (Kan.) High School. His first college football coaching job came at Drake University right after graduation.

In 1989, at age 23, Zenger joined Bill Snyder's staff at Kansas State as one of the nation's youngest full-time football staff members; he served in key roles as assistant recruiting coordinator and director of football operations. Zenger completed his master's degree in journalism and mass communication in 1992 while helping Snyder bring Wildcat football to unprecedented success.

It became evident, though, that more than coaching was in store for Zenger. He sought advice from then-KU Chancellor Gene Budig, who convinced him to pursue a Ph.D. at KU. As he completed his Ph.D. in educational policy and leadership (1996), Zenger contributed communications and special projects support to the office of the executive vice-chancellor, Ed Meyen, and wrote the professional life history of then-chancellor Del Shankel, while strengthening his understanding of university leadership at the highest levels.

While focusing his attention on academics, he managed to stay involved in the world of intercollegiate athletics, and specifically football. 'Involved' may be an understatement. In 1993 Zenger and a friend founded American Football Quarterly, a magazine for coaches. Zenger served as publisher - and then editor - until 1995, when he sold his share of the by-then-thriving magazine.

Still, coaching stayed in his blood. After earning his doctorate, Zenger in 1996 signed on as the recruiting coordinator for the brand-new NCAA Division I football program at the University of South Florida. A year later he joined the University of Wyoming football staff as recruiting coordinator and within two years rose to assistant head coach, a position he still considers one of the crowning achievements of his career.

Zenger stayed at Wyoming through the 2000 season before returning to Kansas State. He spent a year in the KSU College of Business, raising more than $2 million and restructuring its development program with research and planning. He rejoined KSU Athletics in 2001 as assistant athletics director for major gifts, helping KSU initiate important development strategies. In 2002 he was appointed KSU's associate athletics director for development, a position he held until 2005, when he was named Athletics Director at Illinois State.

A published author and researcher, Zenger served for three years on the NCAA Division I Committee on Student-Athlete Reinstatement. He also served on two NCAA Division I Football Championship Subdivision (FCS) Division committees, and was a member of the Executive Committee of NACDA's Division I FCS Athletic Directors Association.

He is also a member of many professional and university organizations, including the National Association of Collegiate Directors of Athletics (NACDA), the Association for the Study of Higher Education and the American Football Coaches Association.

Zenger is married to the former Pam McAnarney. The couple has three children: Luke, Abby and Jake.

COMPLIANCE 101:

UNDERSTANDING THE “RULES OF THE GAME”

With the continued success of Kansas Athletics, the Athletic Compliance Office wants you to understand how you can help KU coaches and student-athletes. Institutional control of athletics is a fundamental requirement of NCAA legislation. Specifically, the NCAA constitution provides that each institution shall be responsible for:

- Controlling its intercollegiate athletics program in compliance with the rules and regulations of the NCAA.
- Monitoring its program to ensure compliance with identifying and reporting to the NCAA instances in which compliance has not been achieved and taking appropriate corrective action.
- Ensuring that members of the institution's staff, student-athletes and other individuals or groups representing the institution's athletics interests comply with all applicable NCAA rules.

Under NCAA rules, KU is responsible for all actions of its boosters. Therefore, it is also our responsibility to make you aware of consequences for violating the rules pertaining to permissible booster activity. Boosters found in violation are subject to losing benefits and privileges, including season tickets. In addition, the NCAA Committee on Infractions has required institutions to disassociate boosters who have violated NCAA rules and regulations from the institution.

COMPLIANCE TERMINOLOGY

BOOSTERS. You are a representative of KU's athletics interests, more commonly known as a “booster,” if you meet any of the following conditions:

- You are a member of any organization that promotes KU's athletics program (e.g., Williams Education Fund);
- You have made a financial contribution to the KU athletics department or its booster organization;
- You have assisted in the recruitment of prospective student-athletes for KU;
- You have provided benefits (e.g., summer jobs or occasional family meals) to enrolled student-athletes;
- You are the parent(s) or legal guardian(s) of an enrolled student-athlete; or
- You have, in any way, promoted the athletics program at KU.

Remember: Once an individual has been identified as a booster, he or she retains this identity indefinitely. Even if you are not a booster as defined by the NCAA, know that your actions involving student-athletes can cause violations of NCAA rules. Something as simple as buying a student-athlete lunch at a fast food restaurant is, most likely, a NCAA violation. Please contact the Athletic Compliance Office with your questions regarding impermissible recruiting inducements and extra benefits.

PROSPECTS. A prospective student-athlete, commonly known as a “prospect” or “recruit,” is any individual who has started classes for the ninth grade. In addition, a student who has not started classes for the ninth grade becomes a prospect if the institution contacts the student for recruiting purposes or provides the student (or the student's relatives or friends) any financial assistance or other benefits that the institution does not generally provide to all prospective students. In addition, student-athletes enrolled in preparatory schools or two-year colleges are considered prospective student-athletes.

Remember: A prospect remains a prospect even after he or she signs a National Letter of Intent or Financial Aid Agreement to attend KU. The prospect does not lose this status until the start of classes at the university or until the beginning of official practice prior to the start of classes, whichever occurs first. After classes or official practice begins, the prospective student-athlete then simply becomes a student-athlete.

CONTACT. A “contact” is a face-to-face encounter between a prospect or the prospect's parent, relative or legal guardian and institutional staff member or athletics representative during which dialogue occurs in excess of an exchange of a greeting. However, any such face-to-face encounter on the KU campus or during a KU event that is prearranged, or takes place on the grounds of the prospect's educational institution or at the site of an organized competition or practice involving the prospect or the prospect's high school, preparatory school, two-year college or all-star team, shall be considered a contact, regardless of the content of the conversation that occurs.

TELEPHONE/ELECTRONIC CORRESPONDENCE CONTACT.

The restriction on contact extends to telephone and electronic correspondence. Any contact by you or any other booster, alumnus or other representative of athletics interest via these modes of communication is prohibited. Electronic correspondence includes, but not limited to, text messaging or any application that functions as a text message (i.e. snapchat), email, any social media methods (i.e. Facebook, Twitter), chat rooms and instant message. Telephone contact is any electronically-transmitted voice exchange including, but not limited to, calls and video conferencing such as Skype and Facetime.

RECRUITING. Any contact by you or any other booster, alumnus or other representative of Kansas Athletics' interests for the purpose of recruitment, is strictly and clearly prohibited.

It is not permissible for any member of Kansas Athletics' staff, alumnus or booster to contact a student-athlete at another institution for the purpose of recruitment. A student-athlete who is attending another institution must receive written permission from their institution before they can have contact with the University of Kansas.

If you know of a prospective student-athlete who may want to attend KU, we encourage you to call the appropriate coach. Contacting a KU coach is the only permissible recruiting activity in which boosters may participate.

EMPLOYMENT. It is permissible for an athletics representative or alumnus/alumna to contact a prospect regarding summer employment prior to initial enrollment provided the prospect has signed a National Letter of Intent. However, no contact may be made without approval from the Athletic Compliance Office. In addition, the employment arrangement for the prospect may not begin until the prospect has graduated from high school. If the prospect is attending a two-year institution, the employment may not begin prior to the time that the prospect has officially withdrawn from or has completed the requirements for graduation at the two-year college.

EXTRA BENEFITS. It is not permissible to provide any type of assistance to a prospect — financial or otherwise. A representative of Kansas Athletics' interests or a “booster” may not provide ANYTHING to a prospect, their friends or family, even if the prospect has a signed National Letter of Intent or a Financial Aid Agreement.

STUDENT-ATHLETE. A student-athlete is any University of Kansas student who is a member of a varsity athletics team.

EXTRA BENEFITS. An extra benefit is any special arrangement by an institutional employee or booster to provide a student-athlete or his/her relatives or friends with a benefit not expressly authorized by the NCAA legislation. It is a violation of the NCAA rules to provide an extra benefit to a student-athlete.

OCCASIONAL MEAL. You may provide a student-athlete or a team with an occasional meal at your home. This meal can be catered and you may provide the student-athletes with transportation to attend the meal. All occasional meals must be pre-approved by the Athletic Compliance Office.

Together, the University of Kansas and YOU will make this program a success. These reminders will help guide you and ensure that Kansas Athletics operates within the rules and regulations of the NCAA as we continue toward our ultimate goal of academic and athletics excellence. If in doubt, remember that in most cases any contact with or benefits given to a prospect or an enrolled student-athlete or their family or friends is strictly prohibited.
